“SNAP HAPPY” BAGS

Elaine Linn

Do you remember the purses from years ago that would snap open and closed? Now you can make a collection of three different small bags with a snappy closure large enough for coins, cosmetics and eye glasses. The secret ingredient is two pieces of a retractable tape measure that is cut in sections for the closure. You don't have to steal your husband's tape measure; my husband has donated 50 feet of well used tape measure for the cause.
